Australian Passports – Child Applicants

This information sheet should be read in conjunction with the guidance notes available at www.passports.gov.au.

Applications or renewals of an Australian passport are by appointment only, Monday to Friday (subject to appointment availability and excluding Embassy public holidays).

For child applicants, one parent must lodge the application in person. The child does not need to be present (except if aged 16 or over at the time of application).

Your child's new passport will take 3 weeks to process. If you need to travel while the new document is being processed, please advise staff at the interview. For this option you will need to keep the current passport and present it to us for cancellation when you collect the new passport. If you choose to have the current passport cancelled at the interview, the new passport can be mailed to you in Thailand or collected in person from the Consular Services Section at the Embassy.

Child's passport applications without consent from each person with parental responsibility

Generally, people with parental responsibility are the parents named on the child's full birth certificate.

The only way to guarantee the issue of a passport to a child without full consent is with an Australian court order permitting the child to have an Australian travel document, travel internationally or live or spend time with a person outside Australia.

Without full consent or an Australian court order, you may ask for your child's application to be considered under special circumstances. Applications to be considered under special circumstances must be referred to the Australian Passport Office, Canberra and a decision may take an additional 6-8 weeks. We recommend waiting for the decision on whether a passport can be issued before making firm travel plans or purchasing tickets.

Applications considered under special circumstances also require additional forms to be completed to support the application. Please contact the Consular Services Section to request these forms.

Passport photos

Photos that do not meet the requirements will be rejected and this will delay the issue of your passport.
