From 4 July 2018, applications or renewals of an Australian passport will be accepted by appointment only, Monday to Friday between 8:30am and 12:00pm (subject to appointment availability and excluding Embassy public holidays). All passport applications must be lodged in person.

For child applicants, one parent must lodge the application in person. The child does not need to be present (except if aged 16 years of age or over at the time of application).
